

Office Building Platform, Zurich

Platform is the horizontal counterpart of Prime Tower. This seven-story commercial building is the head office of the consulting firm of Ernst & Young AG in Zurich and it offers space for 1,000 employees. The centre is formed by a spacious atrium illuminated from the top. In addition to the office spaces, 26 meeting rooms, an auditorium, a library, an employee restaurant and cafeteria are added.

Place

Zurich

Period: 2008 - 2011

Delivered services

- client representation and project management
- control of GC submission
- monitoring and steering of the general contractor for the realization phase steering and coordination of the client's QA team
- project change and claim management
- Cost controlling
- plan reviews
- quality inspections at the construction site reporting of risks, quality, costs, deadlines
- coordination of the building's construction including FM and operation management of the construction trust account/release of payments
- monitoring of the acceptance process and deficiency rectification

Specifications

- Construction: CHF 80 Mio.